

Rubrique: Pays Francophone

50	Student presents rich, interesting and relevant information using a wide variety of specific vocabulary. Research and organization are clearly evident and enhance the presentation. Presentation is interesting and detailed and contributes to the knowledge of the audience. Visual enriches the presentation. There may be minor errors in grammar that do not impact comprehensibility.
40	Student presents most relevant information clearly using appropriate vocabulary. Organization and research are evident, but presentation may be vague and confusing at times for audience. Visual supports the presentation. Several errors may impact comprehensibility, but misunderstandings are clarified in the target language.
30	Student's presentation has major gaps in information. Speech is simple and lacks variety. Vocabulary is limited. English is used. Little evidence of research or organization. Visual is incomplete or non-existent. Presentation does not inform the audience. Frequent errors lead to confusion.